2. The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families and may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, LA and/or the DfE

We only collect and use pupils' personal data relating to pupils and their families when the law allows us to as set out in Article 6 and Article 9 of the General Data Protection Regulations and UK law.

Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest (Article 6e)
- We need to comply with a legal obligation (Article 6c) eg school census returns as required by the Education Act 1996: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>] and Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013
- We need it for reasons of substantial public interest (Article 9g)

Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way (Article 6a)

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

3. Why we collect and use this information

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
